

Die Veneris, 31 Augusti, 1649.

Resolved (upon the question) by the Commons assembled in Parliament, That Mr. Walter Mountagu do within ten days next ensuing, depart this Nation, and all the Dominions thereof, and not to return again into this Nation, or any the Dominions thereof, upon pain of Death, and Confiscation of his Estate.

Resolved, &c.

That whosoever shall conceal him the said Walter Mountagu within this Commonwealth at any time after the said ten days, the Estates of such person so concealing him, shall be Sequestred.

Resolved, &c.

That these Votes be forthwith printed and published, and set up in the most publike places within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Liberties thereof.

Resolved, &c.

That Sir Kenelm Digby do depart this Nation, and all the Dominions thereof, within twenty days next ensuing, and not return without particular leave first had of the Parliament, upon pain of Death, and Confiscation of his Estate Real and Personal.

Ordered, That this Vote be forthwith printed and published.

Resolved, &c.

That the Estate and Estates of all such person or persons as shall or do conceal Sir John Winter, Mr. Walter Mountagu, and Sir Kenelm Digby, or any of them, shall be Sequestred.

Ordered, That the Sergeant at Arms attending this House, do give notice of these several Orders to the said Sir Kenelm Digby, and Mr. Walter Mountagu, and to see these Votes printed and posted up.
